Mr. Mannino,

Following are Impact Unlimited, Inc. answers to the Request for Information surrounding the Cornell-Dubilier Electronics, Inc site in Middlesex County, New Jersey:

1a) Impact Unlimited, Inc
250 Ridge Road
Dayton, New Jersey 08810

1b) Mr. Richard V. Nelson
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
P.O. Box 558
Dayton, New Jersey 08810

Mr. Kenneth Payne
President
P.O. Box 558
Dayton, New Jersey 08810

1c) Corporation
Incorporated in New Jersey, 01/1973
Agent for Service of Process – Mr. Thomas

1d) Impact Unlimited, Inc is not affiliated with any other company and has no subsidiaries of the corporation.

2.) Impact Unlimited, Inc is a current going concern.

3.) The EPA Identification number for Impact Unlimited, Inc is JD981495344.

4.) Impact Unlimited, Inc utilized the Site as an external warehouse facility from 1980 through June 1986. The company conducted no operations at the facility except storage of exhibit crates. All activity took place at our corporate address. The building we leased space in was located in the northwest corner of the complex on the dead end street off of Hamilton Blvd. We no longer have a copy of the lease. It has been destroyed as part of our record retention program.

5.) No permits were issued.

6.) Impact Unlimited, Inc operated a warehouse in the northwest corner of the site during the time property was leased. We stored crates containing exhibit modules which would be shipped to tradeshow throughout the USA to be set up, used, dismantled and shipped back for storing until the next required use. The facility was managed by Mr. John Lepore through 1983 and Mr. Mark Christian between 1983 and 1986. Both are currently employed by Impact Unlimited, Inc.

7.) The company did not use, store generate or handle any hazardous waste at the site.

8.) The company has never performed any analysis of hazardous substances, hazardous wastes or industrial waste materials at the site.

9.) The company had no storage or disposal practices related to hazardous substances, hazardous wastes and or industrial wastes at the site.

10.) Does not apply. The company never had any contact with hazardous substances, waste or industrial waste at the site.

11.) The following individuals have knowledge of the companies operations at the facility during our term of the lease:

John Lepore 250 Ridge Road, Dayton New Jersey 732 274-2000

John managed the warehouse for the company

12.) The company did not enter into any agreements relating to the generation, handling, transport and or disposal of any hazardous wastes and or industrial waste material at the site.

13.) No leaks of hazardous substances, hazardous wastes and or industrial wastes occurred at the site during our lease agreement.

14.) The company had no activity that resulted in the excavation, disturbance or redistribution of soils at the site.

15.) The company did not use lagoons, impoundments and or storage tanks at the site.

16.) Impact Unlimited, Inc occupied a building at the site which was accessible directly from the dead end street off of Hamilton Blvd. Therefore we never entered the complex and could not comment on the activity within the site. The building we occupied was in disrepair, with rusted metal beams and pole, painted windows, no heat, minimal lighting, no bathroom or running water, grime, soot and oily stains on the floor and unpaved gravel access road. People involved can not recall any other tenant companies due to the independent access we had to the building we used as a warehouse.

17.) No releases of hazardous substance existed as a result of our activity at the site therefore no indemnifications were needed.

18.) No releases of hazardous substance existed as a result of our activity at the site therefore no indemnifications were needed

19.) The business identified in Question 1 has never filed for bankruptcy.

20.) Impact Unlimited, Inc occupied a building at the site which was accessible directly from the dead end street off of Hamilton Blvd. Therefore we never entered the complex and could not comment on the activity within the site.
